Prologue

We are living in a modern, atomic age, and the pace of living has stepped up. This is especially true at Westlake High where the words "school life" and "action" go hand in hand. Whether it be in a grueling athletic battle, in the long revered realm of scholarship, or in the fields of music, art, drama, or civics, Westlake students are actively meeting many challenges and winning as many victories.

Exciting moments and vivacious friends have made the past and present school years. The Panorama captures these actions and friends so that we may look back upon and enjoy those evanescent moments more fully.

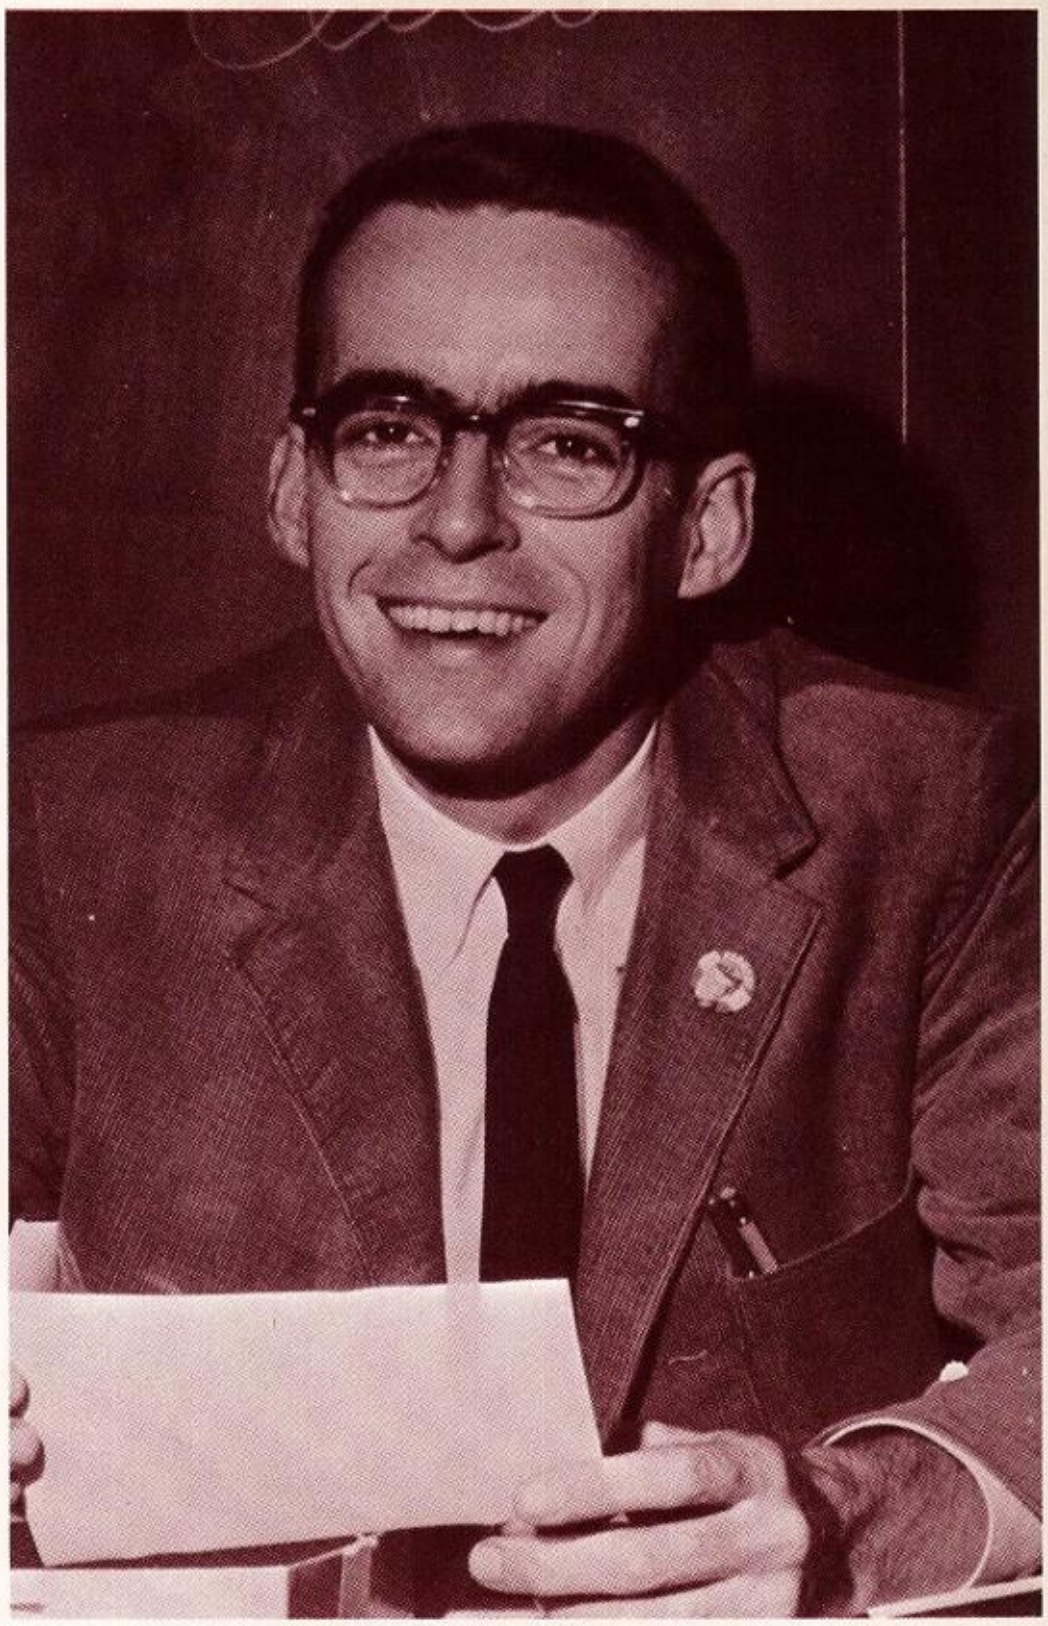
ADVERTISEMENTS



Mr. Miller

We, the members of the 1961 Panorama staff, dedicate this book to the faculty of Westlake High, and especially to you, Mr. Miller, for all you contributed toward the benefit of our high school and its student body.

In your English classes, students have learned what really good literature is and how to find the meaning of a story and apply it to their daily lives. It was through you that many of us first learned of our talents in the fields of writing and speech. You have also shown us that Latin is not merely an ancient language, but a dynamic force, that in some way or another enters into the life of nearly everyone in the world. And without your imagination and assistance, Mr. Miller, this yearbook could not have been made possible.

For these and myriad other reasons, we express to you our profound thanks and a sincere hope that you will be a part of life at Westlake for many years to come.

The Senior Class Wishes To Say . . .

Mr. Krone

APPRECIATION

Giving credit where credit is due suggests that this year the Panorama staff express appreciation to our custodians, cooks, and bus drivers for the services that they willingly render to all of us. (It is seldom that we students realize the dedication that these fine people possess else, how would they do their jobs so well?)

As the prime example of dedication, Mr. Ed Krone, head custodian, receives our special appreciation. Mr. Krone has served Westlake High School for eight years, and his services have been one of the prime factors contributing to our school's pleasant atmosphere.

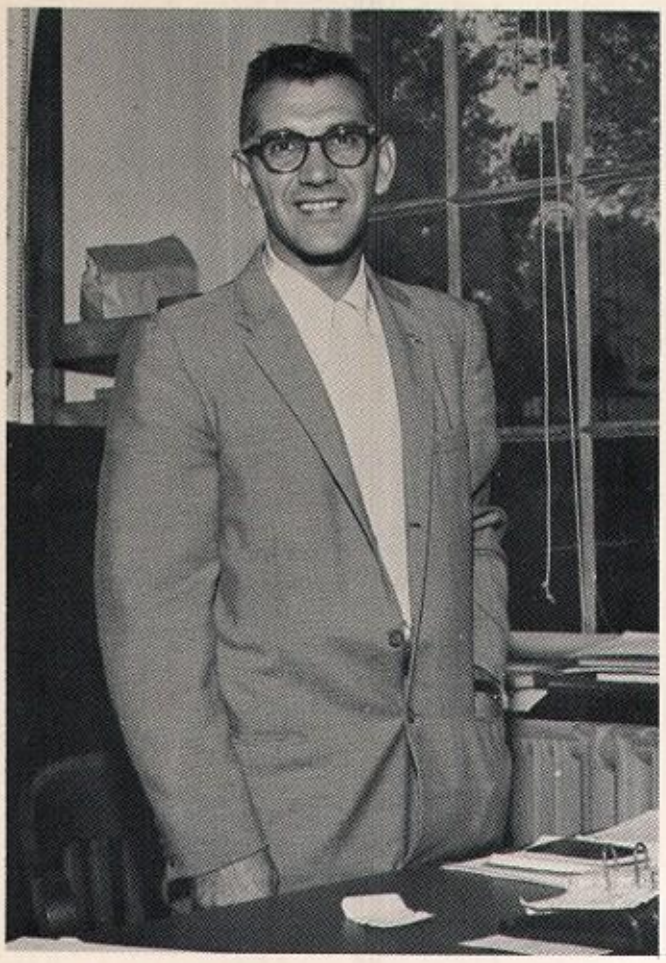
"Thanks"

Administration

Superintendent Mr. Lee G. Burneson is a marvelous person. His hundreds of duties--many times increased since the beginning of building our new high school--keep him out of sight much of the time. However, his rank is remembered and appreciated; his thirty-six years of patience and devotion, commendable.

BOARD OF EDUCATION
They pay our teachers, order our books, plan our curriculum. To us students, an indispensible group of fine citizens.

MR. E. C. RASSMUSSEN:
Our principal who is forever dedicated to his work, and always ready to put up with a pestering student. Three cheers for Mr. E. C. Rassmussen, who is really appreciated.



MR. COLUMBARO:
A just, sincere, and generous person who is always ready to help a student. Never unfair. Three cheers for Mr. Columbaro, whom everyone likes.

MISS KOCH

MRS. GLASSER

MR. STEWART
Vocational guidance is a necessity to every student, for it is in his high school years that he must decide his future occupation and place in the world. A guidance counselor is, then, most beneficial in directing the student in a choice most adaptable to the student's abilities and preference.

Our two secretaries are busily occupied in keeping the office in order and attending to a hundred-and-one necessary details. They also serve as an information bureau to the students, new and old. Their services and good will are certainly appreciated by the student body.

Services

BUS DRIVERS-
No matter what the weather, the Westlake school bus drivers dexterously manuever the buses through the early morning traffic, and are still able to cheerfully greet each passenger, as they gather up students from all parts of our large community. Many thanks to them for such selfless service.

COOKS-
The job of feeding hundreds of school children five days a week seems frightening, but with skill and confidence, the Westlake High cooks tackle it as they prepare tempting and varied dishes that have made our cafeteria the popular place that it is. We salute them for their fine work.

JANITORS-
Westlake High would not have the pleasant atmosphere for study that it does if it were not for our janitors who work tirelessly at giving our school a clean, sparkling exterior, as well as maintaining the large plumbing and heating systems. We tip our hats to them for a job well done.

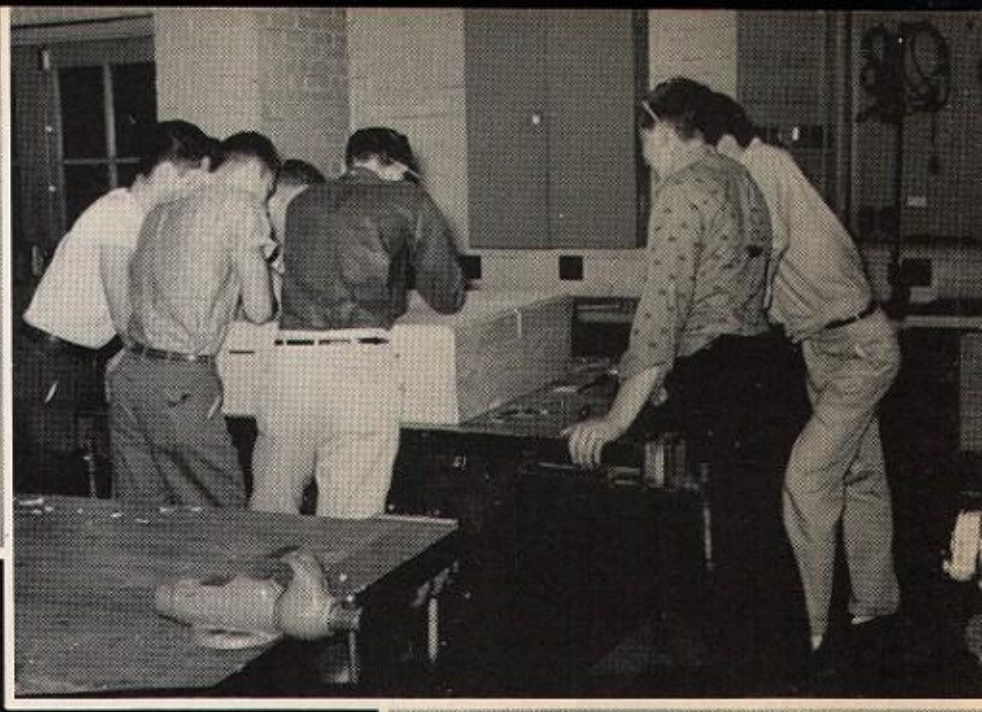
tent Life

Pep comes in the afternoon



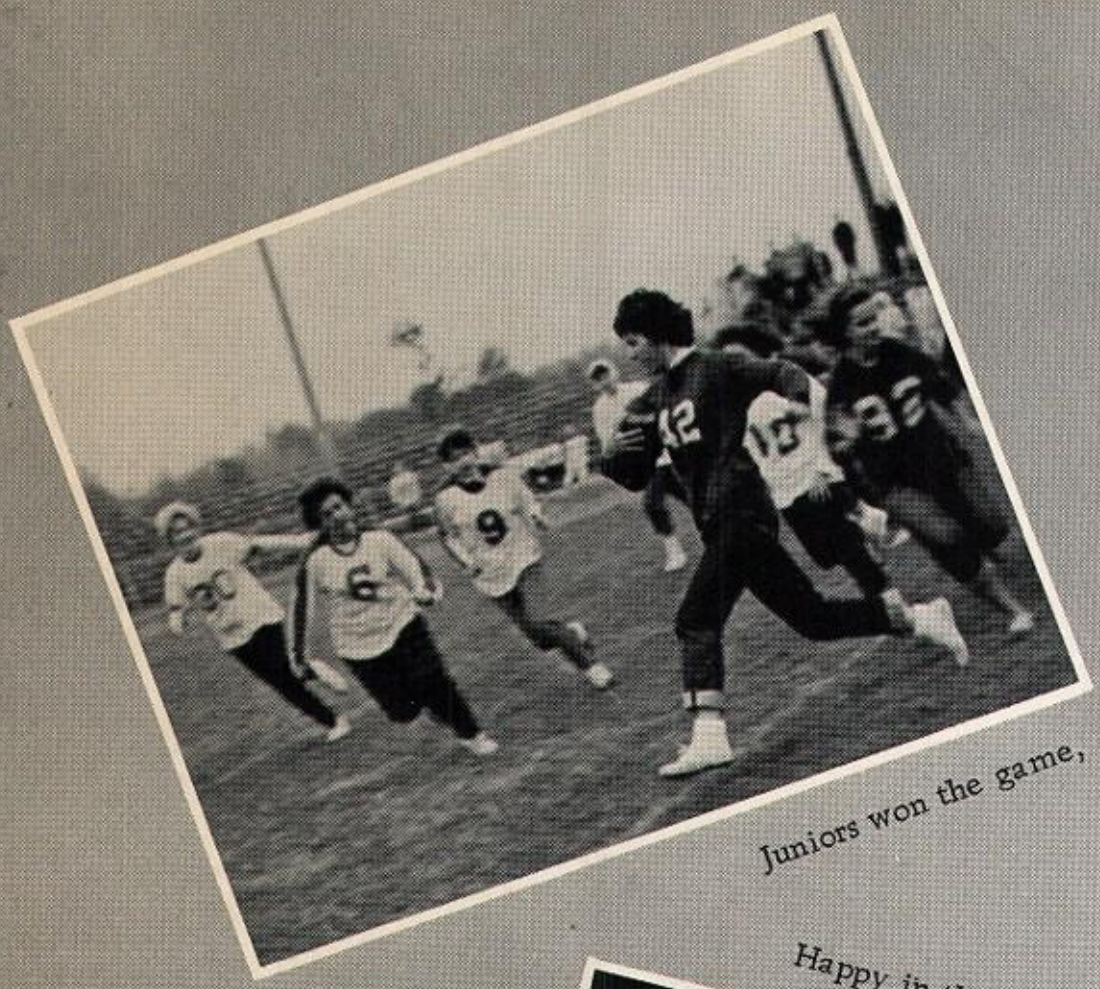
Follow the crowd or you'll never get out!

Afternoons don't have to be boring!

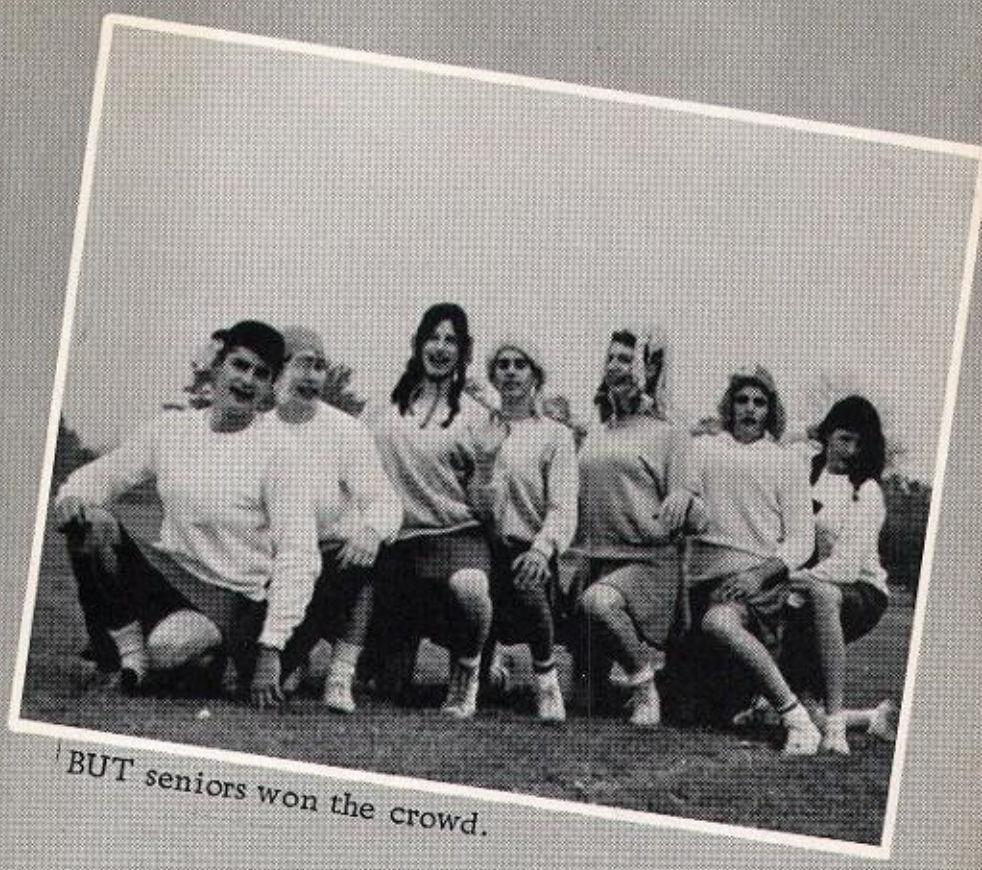
In a hurry to get out?

A gala evening in the gym.

Reading and 'riting and 'rithmetic



Juniors won the game,



BUT seniors won the crowd.

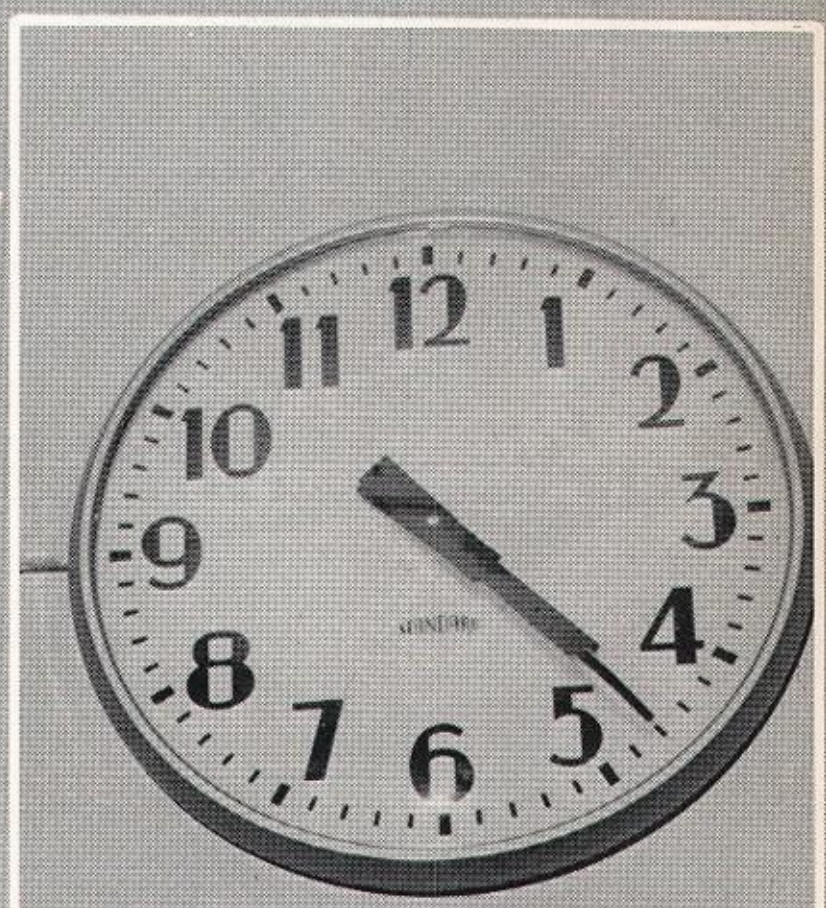
Practice makes perfect!



All to the tune of the hickory stick. . .

ACTIVITIES

Girls' and Boys' Choruses

GIRLS' CHORUS:

Cooperation is the keynote for success with a group as large as the Girls' Chorus. With the able and patient assistance of the director, Mrs. Caulk, the chorus gleefully presents songs for Christmas-time and Spring-time at the annual concerts.

BOYS' CHORUS:

Strong, robust voices rising into the air in acmic unison. This is Westlake's Boys' Chorus. Each year much of their time is spent in preparation for the annual Christmas concert and various other appearances which have always been praised by those who attended them. Under the direction of Mrs. Caulk, the boys have found that there can be a great deal of fun in developing one's musical talent.

These early birds of the music department are present every morning at 8:15, ready to sing. Under the able direction of Mrs. Caulk, they have become a group greatly in demand during the Christmas season to sing at Halle's, the Old Arcade, and the annual tree and lighting service. In addition, they prepare a Christmas and Spring Concert to entertain parents and students.

This year proved to be another busy one for the Junior Band at W. H. S. Concerts and other appearances, as well as regular practice sessions, kept them going and provided loads of enjoyment for themselves and others. It all added up to a fine show of talent and promise for future senior bands of Westlake High.

Senior Band

Marching down the football field in formation or playing at a concert, the Westlake High School Band is a pleasant sound to hear. Little wonder that a crowd of students and parents look forward to performances "with open ears!"

Panorama Staff

Gathering copy and pictures and combining these factors with hard work to create a finished yearbook constitutes the task of the Panorama staff. Work begins in the summer, for the combination of copy, pictures, and art must be carefully planned, not forgetting financial problems. Under the leadership of a capable editor and with the help of our advisor, Mr. Miller, we manage to meet our deadlines. The Panorama presents an exciting and challenging task to its staff members and enjoyable reading to the students.

Student Council

The gavel raps sharply at Student Council meetings to call to order Westlake' High School's representative governing body. In a strict, definitive sense this vital assembly defends the rights and interests of all Westlake students and allows the student to voice his opinion through representation.

In operation this year's council has sponsored numerous activities which included the United Appeal drive and "powder-puff football game," a tax-stamp collection, the election of a king and queen for homecoming, a revision of the hall monitor system, and the Christmas assembly, "The Littleest Angel."

Membership in this club constitutes high honor for a student. The National Honor Society holds an Awards Assembly each year in which new members are announced, and members are chosen for their scholarship, character, and ability. Hard work and study are part of the price of membership, which is certainly worthy of the effort.

Junior Red Cross

Sincere members and a worthwhile purpose make a club such as the Junior Red Cross possible and successful; for a student must be willing to give, and willing to serve. Projects such as hemming scarves for hospitals and bake sales are among this club's activities. Making popcorn balls can be fun, as the members discovered at Christmas, especially when the work is followed by a potluck supper. The students find enjoyment in helping others and in the rewarding satisfaction that springs from giving.

Leaders

The girls of this athletic club number 29. New members are selected on the basis of written and physical tests administered in the spring; character and scholarship are also considered. Final selections are announced at the annual All-Star Basketball Game which the Leaders sponser, and if the pledges survive the hilarious initiation, they learn to assist Mrs. Scheuermann in gym classes and to officiate at girls' after school sports.

This happy energetic group of junior high girls is under the direction of Miss Pascu. A big event for the Y-Teens this year was an overnight which they spent at the Rocky River Y-Camp. At Thanksgiving they helped two needy families with their generous donation.

The other active Junior High group is under the leadership of Miss Schraibman.

Keep up the good work girls!

Friendship

This year has been an especially busy and successful one for the Friendship Club. The club has stayed close to its purpose; promoting Christian fellowship to realize the ideals of personal and social understanding by willing participation in its activities which included a hayride, bake sale, and helping a needy family at Thanksgiving.

This year the Junior Council on World affairs was again kept busy following and interpreting the various happenings on the world scene through their movies and discussions. The highlight of their program was the model United Nations in which councils from schools throughout the Cleveland area participated.

Art

The members of the Art Club serve the school by making posters for dances and other activities and by decorating the bulletin boards. The club is striving toward its goal which is to advance further in the knowledge of art and to contribute its ability as best possible to the school.

Making field trips, building a pamphlet library, and encouraging members to compete for art scholarships round out the club's activities.

The officers of this club are as follows:

Safety Council

The Westlake Safety Council has accomplished much in its efforts to promote safe and courteous driving. Students must register their cars, and each car driven to school must pass a safety check. Such safety projects make students aware of the need for safe driving and sensible thinking at school and home.

The Lettermen's Club is made up of boys who have obtained a varsity letter in track, football, basketball, or baseball. This year, in order to raise money for the new high school, the Lettermen held a Basketball Carnival, in which the teachers played lettermen and varsity members were pitted against alumni. A common custom among the Lettermen is the wearing of their letters on the day of a sports event.

Cheerleaders

Senior: Lois Kurzenberger

When the crisp air of autumn and the prospect of an exciting game draws the students of Westlake High to the football field, the cheerleaders are there to lead them in cheers for their team. These cute girls spread school spirit generously and practice, practice, practice to perfect many different cheers. And when Winter drives us all inside, we enjoy basketball with the cheerleaders again shouting their enthusiasm. Just "give a cheer" along with them!

As far as action on the High School scene goes, nothing can surpass the football game. The crisp autumn air, the blaring of the band, and the precise movements of the cheerleaders all arouse in the stands an excitement that increases with every play. This year the team battled its way through a season stacked high with rough competition and provided the crowds with many memorable thrills.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Never once has the J.V. squad failed to work up the crowds emotions for the next game. Again this year they proved themselves to be serious menace to the hopes of neighboring teams with many a skillful play and fast footwork. Congratulations are in order to the men and Coach Duchez for another terrific season.

Varsity Basketball

"And the score goes up a little higher--let's go!" And excitement goes up a little higher, as a gym floor becomes a virtual battlefield of pounding and dashing. Basketball is one game where no-one leans back and relaxes. Everyone sits tense and anxious, watching as each well-practiced play is swiftly carried out, until the ball slips through the netting for the last time and the buzzer officially declares the victory.

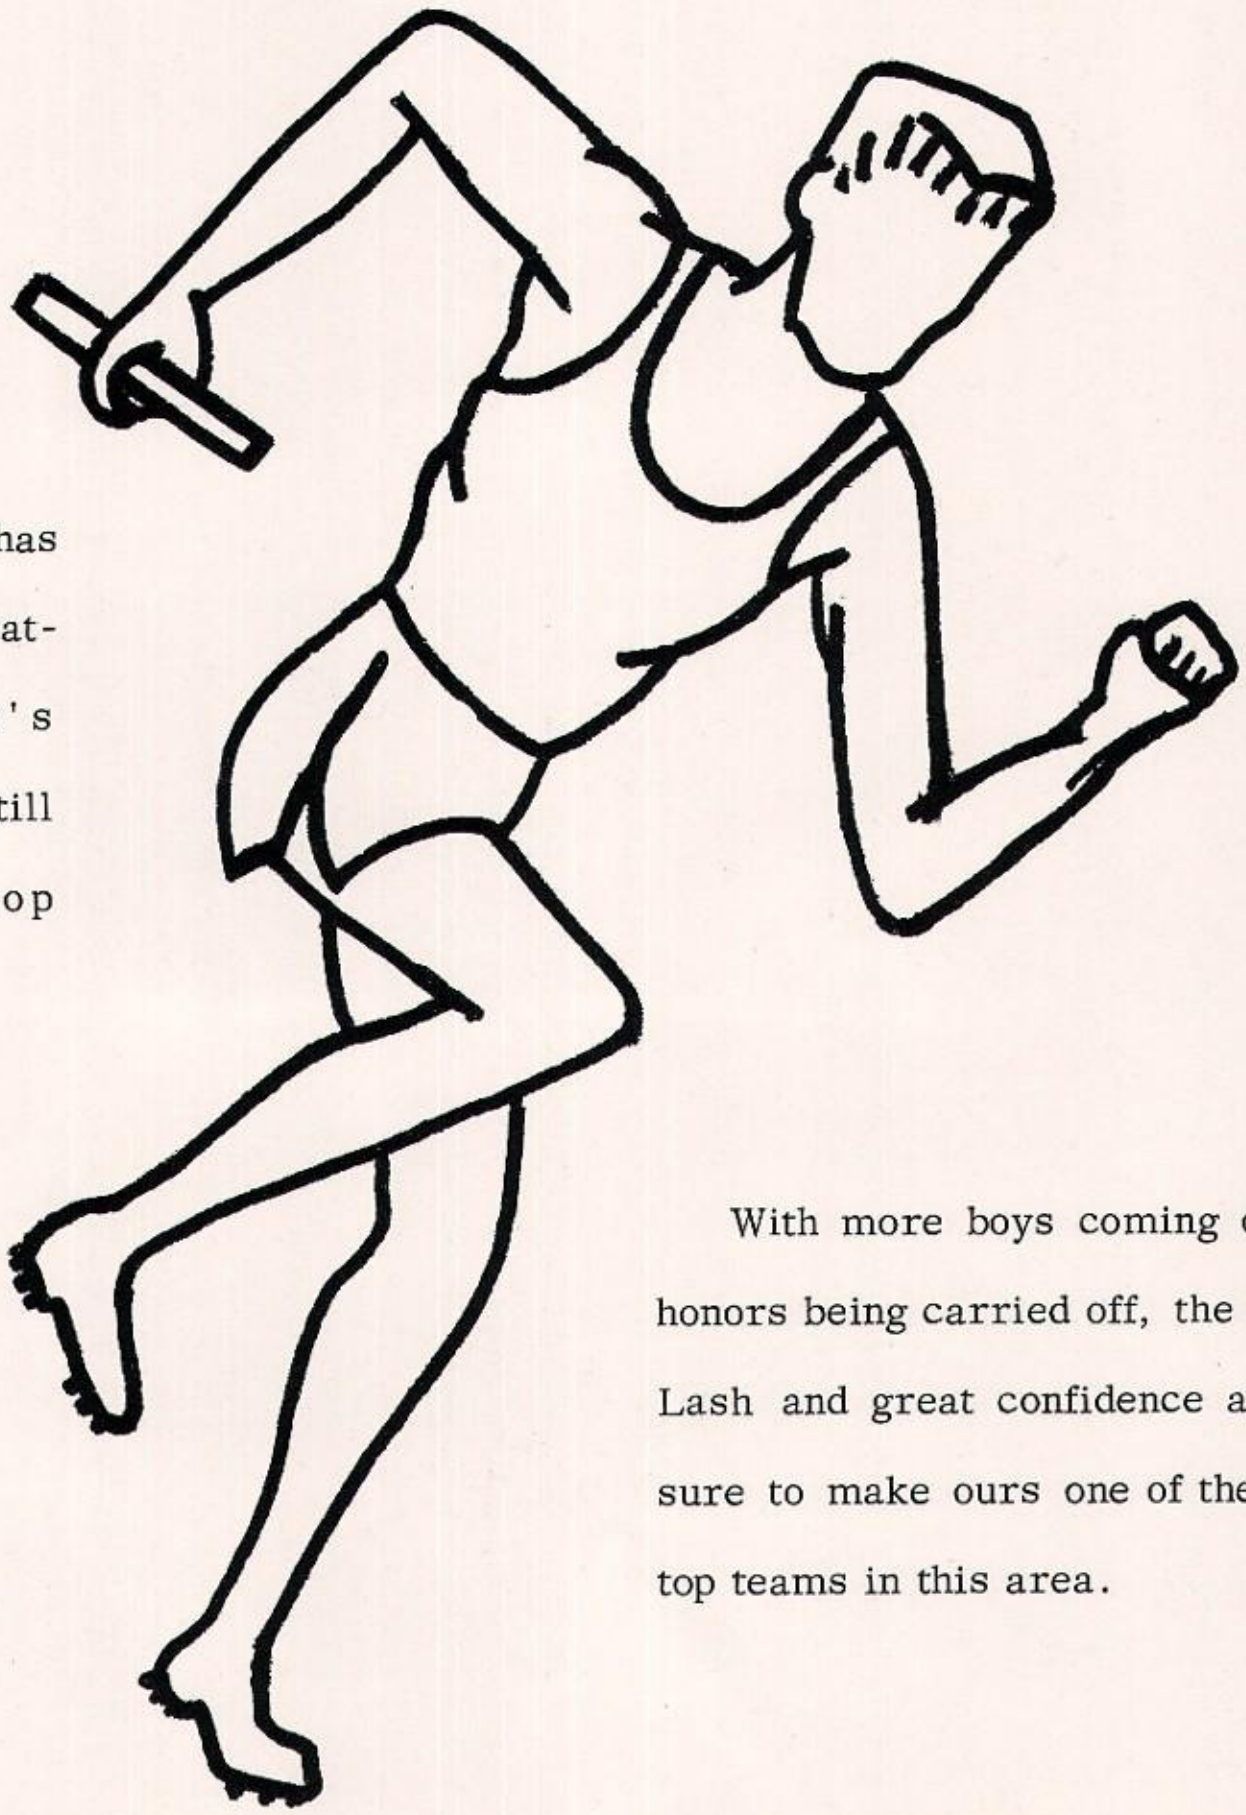
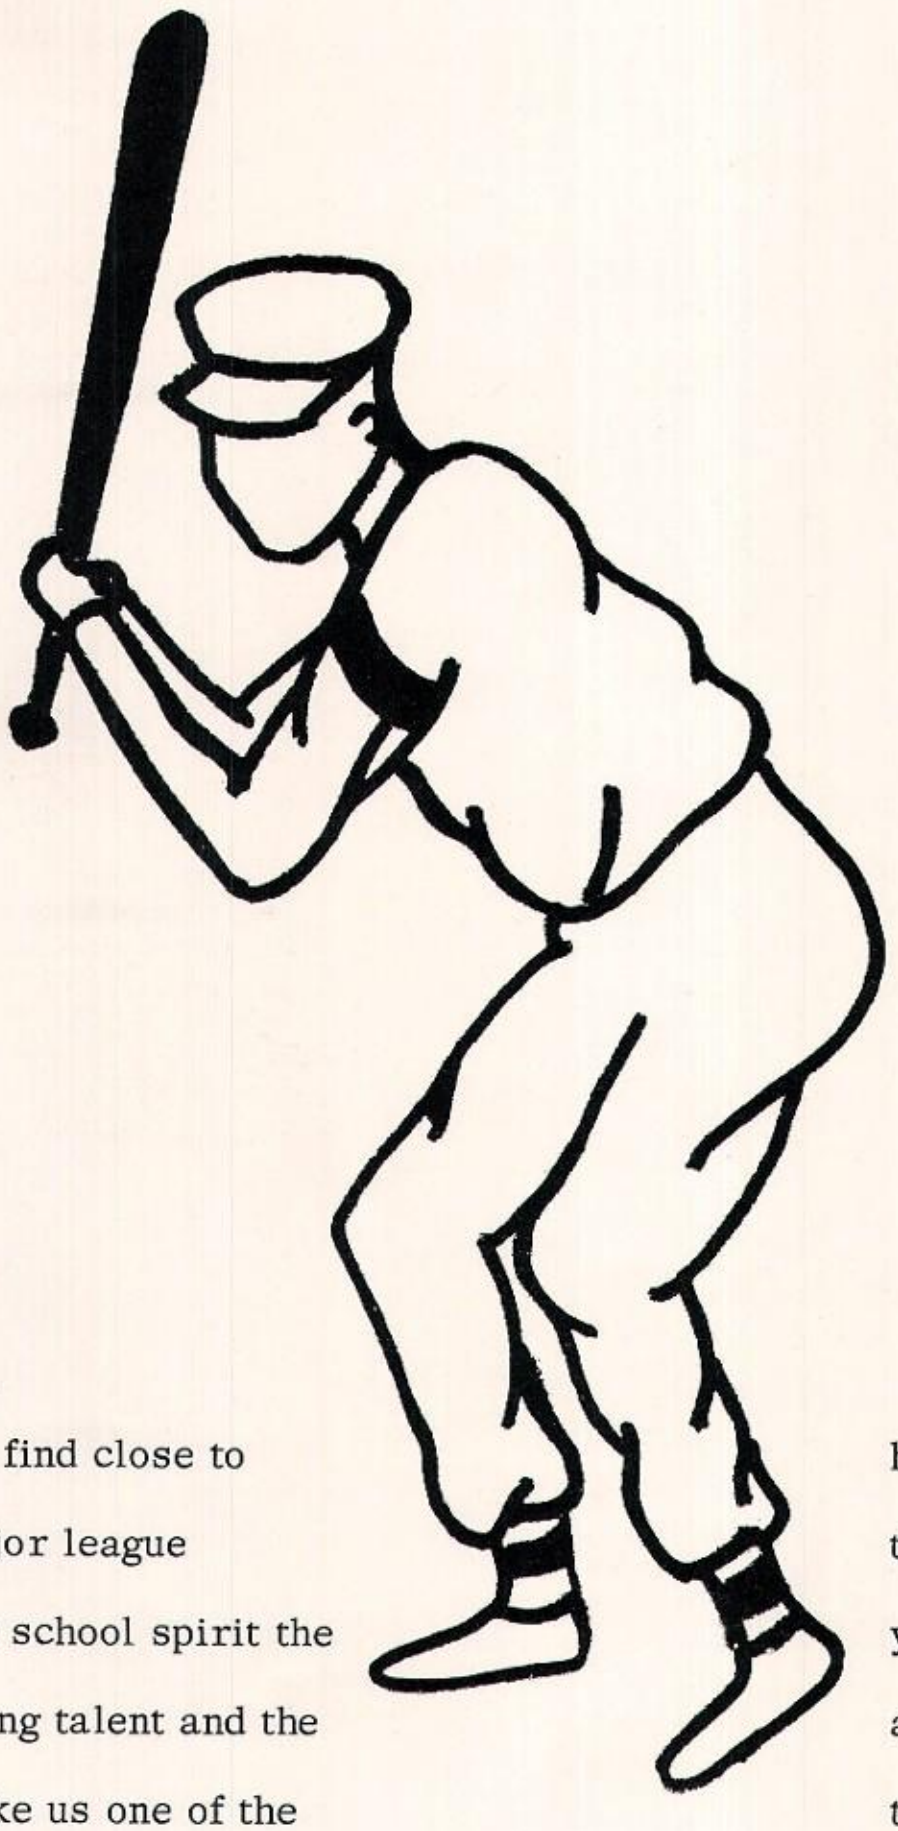
Track



Another year has passed, and the status of Westlake's track team is still climbing at top speed.

With more boys coming out and more honors being carried off, the help of Coach Lash and great confidence and spirit are sure to make ours one of the undisputedly top teams in this area.

Baseball



Ever find yourself moping around during the lazy summer days with nothing to do? If so, find out when and where Westlake's next baseball game will be played and go to it.

Here you'll find close to home as much excitement and action as in a major league thriller, as well as a good way to keep up your school spirit the year 'round. This year a great deal of promising talent and the able leadership of Mr. Ciresi are sure to make us one of the top contenders for first place in the conference.

Sports

The challenge presented by competitive atheletic games greatly encourages the appreciation of a healthy body as well as a keen mind. One need not be an outstanding athelete to enjoy the companionship and good clean fun which team sports offer; and the practice of good sportsmanship encouraged in these sports strengthens the character in much the same way exercise strengthens the body. Even more important is the teamwork necessary in girls' sports, for in this group-cooperation, one learns the importance of working well with others as well as individually, combining recreation and education.

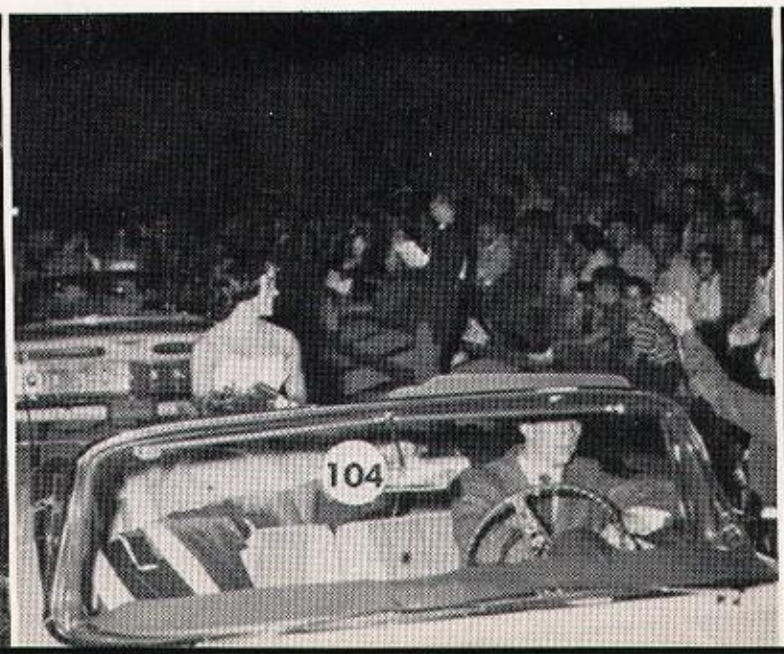
Excitement of cheerleaders increase as the Royal pair arrive with attendents.



The clamor of the student body at the pep assembly and the honor of being crowned at a rousing football game are only a part of the excitement of homecoming.

The hustle begins several weeks in advance of this important day when the Student Council begins to make plans. The Council puzzles "Which game shall we make it?" Velvet robes and royal crowns are rented. "Who owns a sharp convertible that will smartly show the royalty of Westlake High School?" Candidates are nominated; hopefuls are tense. The limitation of three boys and three girls is reached; ballots are cast in the homeroom.

Almost to quickly the moment of the announcement arrives and our favorites, our radiant queen and beaming king of homecoming accept the honor.

And finally the game; Friends, Alumni! The Royal Coronation!

Senior Play

The senior play is without a doubt one of the most cherished traditions at Westlake High. Every graduating class has its scholars, athletes, and musicians; but it is through the play that each one adds its own touch of originality to the school's history.

Into the play goes a great amount of planning, imagination, and hard work; but the end result is always fun and excitement. On the night of presentation, there is plenty of action both on stage and behind the scenes, all coordinated by natural talent and the confidence that comes from long hours of practice.

Anyone who has ever helped put on one of the plays can tell you that there is nothing more rewarding than drawing laughs, exclamations, and thunderous applause from an appreciative audience. The senior play is not merely a fund-raising affair or a display of theatrical talent, but a real experience that is filled with memories for years to come.

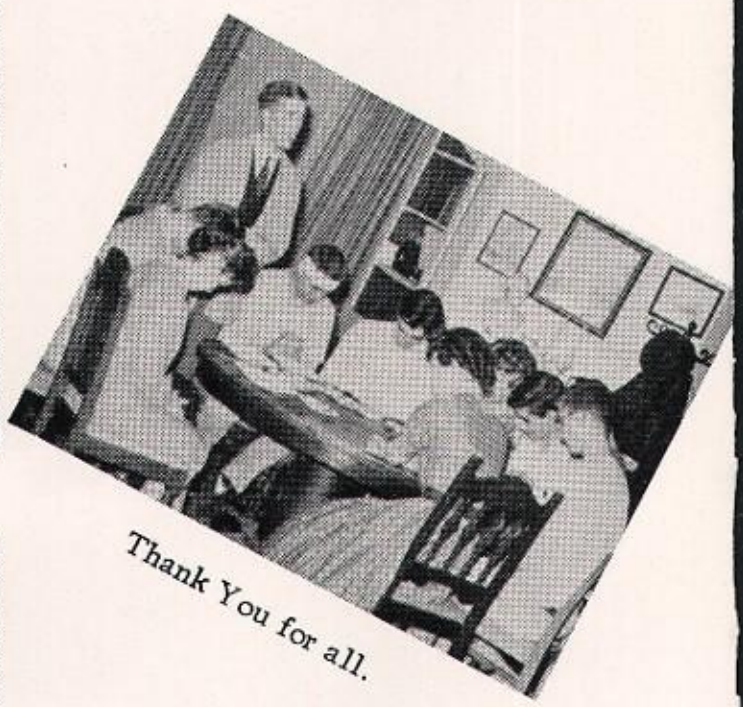
You don't say!



Thank You for all.

Fancy meeting you here!

What a life?

Shall we dance?

The Senior Prom affects an exciting climax to the social activities of our high School year. It is regarded with awe and anticipation by the underclassmen, representing the future year in which they will enjoy the prestige of being seniors.

As for the seniors themselves, the prom represents a culmination of social aspiration; on their attendance at this dance, this night is all important; for it is an event to be remembered as one of the last flings of high school.

The flowers, dresses, music, and other physical elements of the prom mean something special to each senior, but the spirit of amity and closeness that pervades the atmosphere is unanimous, linking these individuals by their past shared hilarity and sadness; for such are the memories of high school each will carry with him into the future.

Seniors and Juniors dining and dancing together with many thanks to the generosity of the Junior Class is the Junior-Senior Banquet.

This tradition is one of our nicest at Westlake. Interclass friendliness is promoted by this annual affair.

Friendliness and fine food and good music; a happy combination and a night to remember.

Graduation is many things to the departing senior.

It is the climax of his High School years- a thrilling, never-to-be-forgotten moment of excitement and emotion, disguised in the calm simplicity of the commencement cap and gown. Like the high point of a mighty novel, the story, with all of its intricacies and sidelights, is suddenly brought to a close, and a grand purpose achieved.

To many, graduation is a sad farewell-a bidding good-bye to persons and things that have become so much a part of one's life that it seems hard to believe that soon they will exist only as memories.

And yet, it is an arousing challenge. Ahead of the graduate looms the future, with all its fullness and promise, beckoning and offering great rewards to those who care enough to earn them.

Finally, and perhaps most of all, graduation is a victory. The struggles, disappointments, and risks have been many and great, but perseverance, courage, and sacrifice have paid off. It is a night of honor and congratulations. Another group of American men and women have proven themselves.

AUTOGRAPHS

Bob,
Don't give the girls too hard a time.
Best of luck always.
